GTBank supports Lebanese Community in Ghana

Guaranty Trust Bank (Ghana) Limited was pleased to sponsor the Miss Lebanon Emigrants Ghana 2008 beauty pageant, which was held at the La Palm Royal Beach Hotel.

The event was organized by the Ghana National Council of the World Lebanese Cultural Union with the aim of promoting the existing cultural exchange between the Lebanese Community and their adopted country, Ghana.

According to the General Manager, Jamiu Yusuff, the bank is committed to contributing to sustainable socio-economic development in the local community and society at large to improve lives in ways that are good for business and for development. The Lebanese Community forms part of GTbank's banking population and for that reason, the bank had much pleasure in contributing to their welfare. GTBank is a customer- oriented bank and is committed to providing solutions to improve the everyday life of every cherished customer.

In line with our mission; the bank always seeks avenues to add value to its stakeholders whilst seeking to maintain a healthy relationship with its host communities.

Guaranty Trust Bank (Ghana) Limited is a subsidiary of Guaranty Trust Bank Plc, one of the largest financial institutions in Nigeria. At the end of the 2007/2008 financial year, Guaranty Trust Bank Plc posted a pre-tax profit of N27.4 billion for the year ended February 28, 2008. In the corresponding period for last year, the pre-tax profit stood at N15.7 billion hence the increase in profit stood at a colossal 74 percent.

The Bank also has as part of its accolades, the honour of being the first Nigerian and African bank to be listed on the main market of the London Stock Exchange. In the month of March, the bank also received the operational license from the FSA (Financial Services Authority) to commence operations as a full fledged commercial bank in the UK
