GTBank Now at Abeka Lapaz

Guaranty Trust Bank (Ghana) Limited, true to its promise to make banking services more accessible and convenient for customers and the general public has opened another branch at the busy commercial suburban area of Abeka Lapaz in Accra.

The new branch which is designed to offer the same comfort and ambiance associated with the GTBank brand will provide full banking services including a 24-hour Visa-enabled ATM used by customers and non-customers alike. Other complimentary services on offer at the branch include e-banking services such as GeNS (Guaranty Trust Electronic Notification Service) to alert customers of all transactions activities on their accounts, statements by e-mail, Internet and SMS banking. Money transfer products such as GTMT (Guaranty Trust Money Transfer), VIGO and WESTERN UNION are also available as part of the Bank's bouquet of remittance services.

The new branch is located on the main Apenkwa M1 Road, near the Allied Oil Filling Station and will operate from Monday to Friday between 8am to 4pm.

The Managing Director of the Bank, Dolapo Ogundimu, in a short statement prior to opening the branch said that, "GTBank is pleased to bring its superior services closer to customers and non-customers who live or do their business in the Abeka Lapaz area". The Bank regards the Abeka Lapaz area as one of the city's business hotbeds and one that has potential to even transform into a major modern commercial hub of the country.

"Current demands by customers and also trends of the banking business nowadays dictate that we create the needed convenience for customers", he concluded.

The new branch brings to 19, the total number of GTBank outlets currently in full operation in Ghana since its inception a little over four years ago. These are located in Accra, Tema, Ashaiman, Kumasi, Techiman, Takoradi and Tarkwa. Plans are far advanced to open new branches at East Legon, Tamale and Aflao. The Bank also has over 27 on-site and off-site ATMs scattered around the country presently.

GTBank Ghana is a subsidiary of Guaranty Trust Bank Plc, a foremost bank in Nigeria with other subsidiaries dotted along West Africa (The Gambia, Sierra Leone and Liberia) and in the United Kingdom.
