PRESS RELEASE

July, 2008

Guaranty Trust Bank (Ghana) Limited extends its presence to other regions

Guaranty Trust Bank (Ghana) Limited is increasing its presence across the country by opening branches in other regions. In the month of June 2008, the bank opened its new branch in Adum, the business hub of Kumasi.

The bank is committed to improving the standard of financial services in the district because of its significance in the regional economy and its central role in increasing the flexibility and dynamism of businesses and the wider economy.

This Kumasi branch is structured to offer all day to day traditional banking services including ATM services on the Visa platform, the VFS Visa Application Fee Payments and the Western Union Money Transfer (WUMT) and the soon to be launched Guaranty Trust Money Transfer (GTMT) which permits easy, safe, reliable and fast money transfers across the country and the West Africa Sub-region wherever a GTBank subsidiary is located- the United Kingdom and the Liberia subsidiaries will soon join the platform.

In line with the bank's branch standard, as in all GTBank locations, internet browsing facilities for customers to conclude transactions and make enquiries on the web are available at the Kumasi branch banking hall.

"We understand that in this market there are a wide variety of consumers", stated the Branch Head, Yahaya Atchulo. "Some of our customers prefer to bank online at home or work, while others still prefer the face-to-face interaction that is offered. Some customers have simple savings goals, and others have critical goals such as, education and retirement. Some prefer writing cheques, while others choose to pay online or use a GTBank Visa card. Therefore in line with the GTBank financial standard, solutions are provided for all, including personal, business and corporate requirements", he added.

The bank intends to increase its presence further to other regions and locations in Ghana to upgrade its branch network to at least 15 to support the 'Orange Convenience' (e-services) platform of 'Banking Anywhere (worldwide), Anytime (24/7)', making banking convenient and comfortable.

Guaranty Trust Bank (Ghana) Limited is a subsidiary of Guaranty Trust Bank Plc, one of the largest financial institutions in Nigeria and one of the fastest growing financial institutions in the West Africa Sub-region with 130 business offices in Nigeria and banking subsidiaries in The Gambia, Sierra Leone and the United Kingdom.

The Bank also has as part of its accolades, the honour of being the first African bank to be listed on the main market of the London Stock Exchange. In the month of March, the bank also received the operational license from the FSA (Financial Services Authority) to commence operations as a full fledged commercial bank in the UK
